

Students Win Infineon Awards

Engineering students, Chuah Kim Chook, 23, and Ong Chu En, 24, were recently awarded the Infineon Awards by the Faculty of Engineering and Green Technology (FEGT), Universiti Tunku Abdul Rahman (UTAR). Chuah, who won the Best Electronic Engineering Student Award, took home RM3,000. She completed her Bachelor of Engineering (Hons) in Electronic Engineering with first class honours in May. Meanwhile, Ong's final-year project won the Best Electronic Engineering Final Year Project Award, thus receiving RM2,000. The ceremony was witnessed by Infineon Technologies (Kulim) Sdn Bhd, Head of Department and Director of Technology, Dr Diewald Wolfgang and its Director of Department of Technology, Tan Soon Keong. Also present were the president of UTAR, Y.Bhg. Academician Dato' Ir. Prof. Dr Chuah Hean Teik; UTAR (Research & Development Commercialisation), Prof. Dr Lee Sze Wei; and Dean of FEGT Dr Yap Vooi Voon. Infineon has also partnered with FEGT to organise student plant visits, talks, recruitment, internship attachment and industry advisory.

(Sourced from New Straits Times, 23 August 2012)