

Institutionalised children in Malaysia

According to government statistics, an estimated 13,700 children live in institutions and orphanages today.

Institutionalised Children

One living parent

Both living parents

Returned to live with families

Have contact with families

An average of 100 babies are dumped every year in Malaysia and more than 50 per cent do not survive.